No car can possibly give greater value nor better satisfaction. With a body built on long, beautiful lines, with extra-wide, comfortable seats and more than ample leg room, assembled on a chassis equipped with a unit power plant construction that has proven itself highly efficient, this model meets every requirement demanded in a dependable touring car for use under all conditions.

If you want a good car, better let me fix you up. They are going like hot cakes. None better, few as good. The most popular car. Sold by

Is it right to Advertise Coca Cola?

Men who play the wily game of politics have discovered that the best way to distract the attention of the public from their own shortcomings is to make a loud-mouthed sensational attack upon some one else. As the cattle-fish eludes its pursuer by clouding the surrounding water with the contents of its ink sac, so the political adventurer takes advantage of the ignorance and prejudices of the people to escape from his indefensible position by muddying the waters of public opinion.

A case in point is the recent attack made upon the religious press for carrying Coca-Cola advertising. This attack was made by a politician who was supposed to be an expert in chemistry but who, having brought a suit against the Coca-Cola Company, was humiliated by having to acknowledge that he could not qualify as an expert.

The court decided in favor of the Coca-Cola Company as it was clearly shown that the only essential difference between Coca-Cola and coffee or tea is that the former contains only about half as much caffeine as the latter and that the flavor is different.

The question as to whether it is right to advertise Coca-Cola seems to resolve itself therefore into the question as to whether it is right to advertise coffee, tea, chocolate, cocoa and other beverages of the caffeine group.

TENT MEETING DRAWS CROWDS

The Co-operative Meetings by Evangelist Friar is Arousing Interest and Enthusiasm

The meeting at the tent which has been in progress nearly two weeks is attracting much attention. The attendance has grown until the large tent is well filled. The business men of the town close for the morning service and many of them attend.

Rev. Friar's bold outspoken deliverances on worldliness and gross iniquity in the church and out of it has made it unpleasant for those at least who did not want to clean up. But the line-up on the part of Christians against unbecoming conduct has come to mean much for the future of the church in Hondo. The lines are drawn, and they will remain drawn.

There have been but few conversations outside of the Church, up to this time but we are persuaded that many are ready to clean up and get on the right side of the greatest question known to man.

The moral atmosphere has not been what it should be in Hondo, but we are ready to believe that a better day has dawned. A clean religious church in a community is the great dynamo that sends forth a current of influence that blazes out in principle in individual citizenship. A wholesome moral atmosphere is as essential to spiritual health and growth as wholesome sanitary conditions are to the physical.

We know what is right so let us have the courage of our convictions.
God is our friend; let us be His.

COMMISSIONERS COURT NEWS

Assessment of the Medina Valley Irrigation Company fixed at One Million Dollars

The Commissioners Court convened here Monday to hear reasons why the raises made in the assessment of certain property in Medina County should not be made final, and to transact such other business as might come before it.
All members of the court and the usual officers were in attendance.

The assessment of the Medina Valley Irrigation Co. was fixed finally at one million dollars on the dam and canal assessment.

Other assessments were made final as previously fixed.

In the matter of petition of John P.
Dewald for a certificate of good moral character that he may apply for the examination for admission to the bar the same was granted.

Four thousand dollars of the road fund was apportioned to the various precincts as follows:

Precinct 1.....$1,164.05
" 2.....848.90
" 3.....1,020.15
" 4.....966.90
Total.....$4,000.00

The Annual Tabulated Finance Report for 1912 was approved. The report shows receipts and disbursements of $17,519.07 in the general fund with a balance of $3,184.06 cash in the treasury Dec. 31st. The road fund showed $19,035.57 with a balance of $7,438.04 in the treasury Dec. 31st. The bridge fund showed $2,965.25 with $171.82 owing to the road fund.

The court adjourned Wednesday afternoon.

Automobile Club Meets.

Reports from the meeting of the Medina County Automobile Club at Castroville last Friday are to the effect that the attendance was not as large as had been expected but those present made up in enthusiasm for what they lacked in numbers, and considerable business was transacted.

A Constitution and By-Laws were adopted for the government of the Club and the next annual meeting was set for the second Tuesday in June, 1914, at Castroville. Quarterly meetings of the Club will be held in the mean-time at such times and places as the Board of Directors shall designate.

Among other resolutions adopted was one offering a reward of ten dollars for evidence to convict any one of throwing bottles or glass into a public highway.

The membership of the Club now numbers seventy-five, nearly half of the automobile owners in the county.

Medina County's
LARGE FAMILIES

According to the Federal Census Report There is No Race
Suicide in This County

The average size of a Texas family is 4.9 compared with 5.4 ten years ago.
The average family in Medina County contains 5 persons and we have 2666 families residing in this county according to a census report which has just been issued. Medina is one of the 117 Texas counties whose families are larger than the State's average, and if all the families in the State were as large as those of our county Texas' population would be nearer the five million mark.

A Wonderful Invention.

Another dream of Edward Bellem in his wonderful book "Looking Backward" has come true. Speaking in an ordinary tone from his desk in the capitol at Austin the governor of Texas has delivered an address to 400 assembled newspaper men brought together in the banquet hall of the Gunter hotel in San Antonio 81 miles away.

This was accomplished by the "Loud Speaking Telephone" connected with the long distance lines of the Southwestern Telegraph & Telephone company. The editors did not hold the receiver of an ordinary telephone to the ear. The perfect tones, the exact expression of a familiar voice filled the great room as perfectly as if Mr. Colquitt had been standing upon the platform.

This is one of the first times this experiment has been attempted through long distance. The device used is a recent invention. The newspaper men of this state, representing all the public, heard the first demonstration of an apparatus which gives actuality to prophecy, something which a few years ago would have been held as an impossibility.

Governor Colquitt has asked that arrangements be made for the permanent installation of the "Loud Speaking Telephone" in his office at Austin. Hereafter, as the wires of the one universal telephone system are brought into use the chief executive of this state may, if plans now held are carried to a consummation, address conventions in any section of the state by simply turning in his swivel chair to the mouthpiece of an instrument which eliminates distance.

The time will come when all the people of Texas will be brought within the sound of the human voice of any other citizen of the state. The advances of telephony during the past few years have been remarkable. The demonstration as given between Austin and San Antonio at the meeting of the state press association was epochal.

Deafness Cannot Be Cured

by local application, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by inflamed condition of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or imperfect hearing, and when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever; nine cases out of ten are caused by Catarrh which is nothing but an inflamed condition of the mucous surfaces.

We will give One Hundred Dollars for any case of Deafness (caused by catarrh) that cannot be cured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. Send for circulars, free.

A Surprise Party.

A very pleasant surprise party took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Graff Sunday, June 1, 1913, in honor of Mr. Graff's 57th birthday. Those present were Mr. and Mrs. Louis Graff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Emil Graff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Willie Mussmann and family, Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Mechler and family, Mr. and Mrs. Geo. Graff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Mechler and little grandson, Lenhart Jungman, Mr. and Mrs. Florian Bendele and Mrs. John Leobold. Messrs. Fritz, Louis and Otto Graff, Edwin Bendele, Misses Lena and Minnie Graff. A dinner was given to which all did ample justice and in the afternoon refreshments were served and after supper all departed to their peaceful homes, wishing Mr. Graff many more happy birthdays.

LOVE.

(Dedicated to Miss L. S.)

I often asked the stars above,
Will I ever find a girl whom I will love;
Not only admire her, because she is smart,
But who will touch the feelings of my heart.

And the moon I asked "Whether she can see anywhere in the world a girl suitable for me,
A girl whom I could give my heart away."

But the moon laughed at me, and went her way.
But one little star far away,
Winked at me, like he would say:

"You will soon find a girl whom you will love true,
She will be the best little girl you ever knew."

At last I found the fairy of my dreams;
She is the only girl I could love. It seems,
Like God put her in this world just for me.

If I could call her mine how happy would I be!
She has such beautiful eyes,
As blue as the skies
Her cheeks seem to be,
Like the sunset on the sea.

Her lips are like cherries red,
To meet her I was so glad.
Her teeth are like pearls white. So nice!
Her face is always full of smiles.

I don't know how much she knows about life or books,
All I know is that I like her looks.
I do not know whether she cares for me,
All I know is, her slave I would like to be.

To make her happy all her life,
Is what I would always strive;
How gladly my lips to hers I would press,
If she would only say "YES".

Most Children Have Worms

Many mothers think their children are suffering from indigestion, headache, nervousness, weakness, costiveness, when they are victims of that most common of all children's ailments—worms. Peevish, ill-tempered, fretful children, who toss and grind their teeth, with bad breath and colicky pains, have all the symptoms of having worms, and should be given Kickapoo Worm Killer, a pleasant candy lozenge, which expels worms, regulates the bowels, tones up the system, and makes children well and happy. Kickapoo Worm Killer is guaranteed. All druggists, or by mail. Price 25c. Kickapoo Indian Medicine Co., Philadelphia and St. Louis. W. H. Windrow.

J. M. Finger and children were here Wednesday to attend the Reilly-Rothe wedding.

Miss Margaret Koch left Tuesday evening for Lacoste on a visit to her brother, Bertie Koch.

Take Plenty Of Time To Eat

There is a saying that "rapid eating is slow suicide." If you have formed the habit of eating too rapidly you are most likely suffering from indigestion or constipation, which will result eventually in serious illness unless corrected. Digestion begins in the mouth. Food should be thoroughly masticated and insalivated. Then when you have a fullness of the stomach or feel dull and stupid after eating, take one of Chamberlain's Tablets. Many severe cases of stomach trouble and constipation have been cured by the use of these tablets. They are easy to take and most agreeable in effect. Sold by W. H. Windrow.

It's only a matter of time until a white lie becomes dirty.

A Worker Appreciates This.

Wm. Morris, a resident of Florence, Oregon, says: "For the last fourteen years my kidneys and bladder incapacitated me for all work. About eight months ago I began using Foley's Kidney Pills, and they have done what other medicines failed to do, and now I am doing and feeling fine. I heartily recommend Foley Kidney Pills. Foley Kidney Pills do not contain habit forming drugs and are tonic in acting, quick in results. They will help any case of kidney trouble not beyond the reach of medicine. W. H. Windrow.

PUT ONE EYE OUT

Suffered 36 Years From Skin Disease.

I suffered from skin disease for 36 years, and about six months ago it attacked one of my eyes and put it out. After it was too late, I got a box of Hunt's Cure and began to use it, and I must say that it is the best remedy I have used in 36 years, and I believe it will cure any skin eruption.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORT

Meredith Will Go After the Mile Record.

James (Ted) Meredith, winner of the great 800 meter race at the Olympic games, will go after the mile record this summer. It is the opinion of many athletic experts that Ted will equal or better John Paul Jones' world amateur mark of 4 minutes and 15 1/5 seconds, made at the intercollegiate games at Cambridge, Mass., three years ago, as Meredith is improving right along, and he should add several records to his already brilliant list.

Willard Largest Heavyweight.

The largest heavyweight pugilist in captivity today is Jess Willard, the Kansas cyclone, who is after a match with Luther McCarty. He is the man whom Tom Jones, manager of Ad Wiggast, tried to get a contract with, but who was loyal enough to stick to Charley Cutler, the Chicago fighter and wrestler, who has been furnishing his meat ticket for some time.

Willard is billed as the largest and fastest man in the ring. He is also referred to as the logical heavyweight champion. This will, of course, worry no one, not even the real champion, Jack Johnson. Willard never saw the day he could stand up before Johnson and exchange wallops with him. There are any number of "white hopes" in the country today, and Willard is listed among them, but he is not a champion. He is big enough to whip a mule team, standing six feet six inches in his stocking feet, and weighs 225 pounds. His reach is eighty-three and a half inches.

Willard has only been boxing a couple of years. He fought Luther McCarty in New York some time ago and claims to have bested Billy McCarney's man. Like McCarty, Willard is strong on the cowboy stuff and can rope steers and ride moving picture bronchos with as much grace as he can trim a porter-house steak.

Farming Real Fun, Says Sullivan.

John L. Sullivan says that farming is real fun and that he wouldn't exchange it for any other line of business, not even monologuing, which he does just for variety. "Farming is the only thing," says Sullivan. "They say that farming is hard. It isn't. I didn't know anything about it when I started in except what I had heard people say about it."

"Last year I raised 500 bushels of potatoes, five and a half tons of hay and enough vegetables for the house and the pigs all winter. I have two horses, two cows and an eleven room house that is 100 years old with steam heat and electricity in it."

Asked if he was making anything on his potatoes, he said: "I'm selling mine for $1 a bushel. No one ought to pay any more. I wouldn't take more because I don't think potatoes, no matter how good they are, are worth more to any one."

Fighter Dillon's Career.

Ernest Cutler Price (Jack Dillon), one of the stars in the middleweight division of pugilists, climbed through the ropes of life at Frankfort, Ind., Feb. 2, 1891. He made his first appearance as a professional fighter at the age of seventeen. Before he was long in the game he had thirteen knock outs to his credit, among his victims being Ray Bronson and Kid Sullivan.

Since 1900 Dillon has met nearly all of the best middleweights in the country. He has lost twice to Eddie McCarty and once to Frank Klaus. Despite these defeats Dillon is considered by many critics to be a worthy contender for the title last held by the late Stanley Ketchel. The Indiana boy has a good left and a fair right and displays a willingness to mix at all times.

Penn Oarsmen at Work.

A record breaking squad of eudates for the University of Pennsylvania crews reported recently to Coach Ward. More than a hundred students turned in their names and began work on the machines. Six members of last year's varsity eight, Captain Alexander, Maderia, Houser, Daines and Watrous and Brion, who rowed on the varsity four, are still in college and eligible. The entire freshman crew of last spring also is intact.

LOOKING toward the hills of Marin county through the entrance of the great Court of Sun and Stars upon the harbor. In the center is seen a colossal column whose spiral represents man's climb towards fame. At the summit of the column the huge symbolical figure is designed to convey the spirit of success.

Neglected wounds produce old sores and these in time develop ulcers which eat away the vitality.

Ballard's Snow Liniment

Is a Healing Remedy for All Ailments of the Flesh of Man and Beast.

The speed with which this splendid liniment heals up a bad wound or sore has surprised and pleased those who were accustomed to the slower and uncertain effect of less powerful remedies. It mends the incised flesh so quickly that there is but little time lost from work. In relieving rheumatic pains, neuralgia, sciatica, it has done and is doing a wonderful work. Many chronic victims of these diseases have found to their great satisfaction that it cures an attack in a fraction of the time required by the ordinary treatment.

It is equally effective in the flesh ailments of animals. Owners of blooded stock value it highly for two reasons: It heals sores and wounds quickly, and leaves no disfiguring scars.

This remedy is needed in every home. If its great power and efficacy was generally known, no family would be without it.

Price 25c, 50c and $1.00 per Bottle.

: : VIEWS AND REVIEWS: :

It is the mission of man to do good. And that which leads him to do good is good no matter how it fails to measure up to our own narrow view of the eternal fitness of things.

The call for a clean-up in Hondo was responded to nobly and Hondo is now in all probability cleaner than she has been in many years. Now that the town is clean it should be easier to keep it cleaned up.

SABINAL will entertain the Texas Dry Farming Congress on July 15th, 16th and 17th. The next year's Congress could probably be brought to Hondo if our town made a pull for it. Shall we pull or just let'er slide?

PRELIMINARY arrangements have progressed sufficiently to insure a big, old-fashioned barbecue and picnic on July 4th. Let us all get together on this proposition and pull off a stunt that the town can be proud of. In union of purpose and action our fore-fathers won the liberty we all cherish; we must have the same principle if we expect to befittingly celebrate the achievement.

ALL of the preliminaries have been completed and every thing is now in readiness for the opening of the Summer Normal here next Monday, June 9th. The conductor has assurances of a large attendance and every indication points to a successful session. It is the duty of every citizen of Hondo to lend whatever encouragement he can to the Normal and strive to help make the stay of the teachers among us both pleasant and profitable. Here is success to Hondo's Summer Normal, June 9th to July 31st!

Studebaker

"Studebaker wagons certainly last a long time"

"I have had this wagon twenty-two years, and during that time it cost me only $6.00 for repairs, and that was for setting two tires."

"And after twenty-two years of daily use in good and bad weather and over all kinds of roads, I will put this wagon against any new wagon of another make that you can buy today."

"Studebaker wagons are built of air-dried lumber and tested iron and steel. Even the paint and varnish are subjected to a laboratory test to insure wearing qualities."

"No wagon made is subjected to as many tests or is more carefully made than a Studebaker. You can buy them of Studebaker dealers everywhere."

"Don't listen to the dealer who wants to sell you a cheap wagon, represented to be 'just as good' as a Studebaker."

BOB TAYLOR LIVES

In the two bright and beautiful books just issued, "Lectures and Best Literary Productions", and "Life and Career" of Senator Robert Love Taylor, handsomely illustrated.

You cannot hear again his voice, or see the humorous curl of his lips, that convulsed a continent with laughter, but, within the covers of these volumes, are the pictures woven of his wondrous words, and, laughing through their sunny pages, are all of the inimitable stories which he told to the multitudes. In "Life and Career", pens of genius have traced his romantic life from its morning in "Happy Valley", through his young and roseate dreams—through stress and storm—through cheering throngs, and on into the waiting shadows, loved and laurel crowned.

We expect to sell millions of these books. First edition going fast.

Don't Suffer!

"I had been troubled, a little, for nearly 7 years," writes Mrs. L. Fincher, in a letter from Peavy, Ala., "but I was not taken down, until March, when I went to bed and had to have a doctor. He did all he could for me, but I got no better. I hurt all over, and I could not rest. At last, I tried Cardui, and soon I began to improve. Now I am in very good health, and able to do all my housework."

TAKE CARDUI The Woman's Tonic

You may wonder why Cardui is so successful, after other remedies have failed. The answer is that Cardui is successful, because it is composed of scientific ingredients, that act curatively on the womanly system. It is a medicine for women, and for women only. It builds, strengthens, and restores weak and ailing women, to health and happiness.

If you suffer like Mrs. Fincher did, take Cardui. It will surely do for you, what it did for her. At all druggists.

After Close Of School.

What shall I do with son and daughter after close of school? This question confronts many parents at this season of the year. We all concede that it is better to keep young people busy. Many times they are not qualified to be really useful in store and office, and they are usually not old and strong enough to do a man's work on the farm. It is then largely a matter of choosing between sending them to a summer school or letting them loiter about town. Surely this is the time to consider a business education of Bookkeeping, Banking, Shorthand and Typewriting.

The cost is small—around $50 for a single course of Bookkeeping and Banking or Shorthand and Typewriting, and around $85 for the two courses combined.

The San Antonio Business College, 307 Alamo Plaza, San Antonio, Texas, makes a specialty of these branches as well as Commercial Law, Business, Arithmetic, spelling, Penmanship, Rapid Calculation, etc.

Last year one Banker sent his own son to this college through summer vacation, and paid the way of three other ambitious students. The President of the college, Mr. H. C. Mitchell, will send catalogue and full particulars concerning the school upon request.

Bible Has Been Great Emancipator of Human Slavery.

THE TORCH OF LIBERTY.

Pastor Russell Says All Enslavers Are Opposed to the Truth, Realizing Its Power on the Minds of Their Victims—Message of Christ Showed Mankind the Way to Freedom and Inspired Men With Courage to Spread the Gospel Despite Persecution.

Washington, D. C., January 18.—Pastor Russell preached at Washington Temple today, his third sermon on our Union Depot texts. His text was: "The Truth shall make you free." (John 8:32.) He said: "Truth is the great Emancipator. All enslavers are opposed to the Truth, realizing its power upon the minds of their victims. The taskmasters of today would fain hide the Truth from the wage-slaves, but in general find it impossible—so great is the power of the press—and there are still publishers who have not sold their moral sense for sordid gain. In times past, when chattel slavery prevailed, the master found it to his advantage to educate his slaves and thus increase their value, but to his disadvantage to give them ethical culture along the lines of human rights. The feudatory lords of the past established a serfdom and were very willing that the common people should consider them demigods, not amenable to the same laws as their subjects. The same principle apparently prompted the emperors of old Rome, yea, and back to Nebuchadnezzar, the first world emperor, to proclaim themselves Pontifex Maximus and to encourage their people to render them religious as well as secular devotion. The natural selfishness of man has ever thus prompted him to take as much advantage of his fellows as circumstances would permit. I am not here saying that the masses may not have fared about as well under those fetters as if they had been free. I am not arguing that all men are born equal. I am merely stating the facts as all acquainted with history know them. I am putting these facts as a background, that my text may shine out the more luminously. "The Truth shall make you free."

Which is the Torch of Liberty? I can imagine many able men identified with the sciences, each claiming that his science, or truth, has done more than any other to break the shackles of ignorance and to set men free. The artist would tell us of the power of the picture to influence even those who cannot read. The publisher would tell us of the enlightening influence of the press. The astronomer would tell us of his science and tell us of its broadening influence upon the human mind. The geologist, historian and dramatist would each claim for his art the honor of setting men free. But admitting all the claims thus set before us, I ask you to consider my plea that the Bible has been the great Emancipator from human slavery, mental, moral and physical. All other torches derived their spark from the Bible, the Torch of liberty lighted by Divine Providence. The secret of this great power is that the Bible alone sets forth the relationship of man to man. The Bible alone tells us that all humanity are of one blood, all creatures of the same God, all amenable to Him, either for rewards for well doing, or punishments for ill-doing. While the Bible instructs that kings, princes and all in authority should be recognized, and that honor should be rendered to whom honor is due, yet it also tells us that the king upon his throne is amenable to exactly the same laws as his most menial servant, and that if he violates the law he is as sure to be punished. No other book in the world ever placed all humanity thus on the same level. Moreover, the Bible points out that the present life is merely a schooling time related to the future life as cause and effect. It shows, as none other book does, that every act of life, every spoken word, yea, every wilful thought, bears upon our character-development and prepares us for higher things in the life to come, if faithful, or, conversely, will give us more steps to reduce in the upward way, and correspondingly more difficulty in ever reaching the reward of life everlasting.

"Hope Thou in God." As we look back into the past, we see the nations stupid in the hands of crafty sovereigns. We see the nation of Israel, sudden with fear of their Egyptian taskmasters, not daring of themselves to take steps for liberty. But after they had been delivered from Egyptian bondage, after God had entered into a Covenant with them as a nation at Mount Sinai, they were a changed people. The thought that God was for them had promised them aid worked wonders, not only with the leaders, but also with the rank and file. True, they were inclined to gravitate toward the ways of the heathen nations. But to the extent that they remained loyal to their Covenant with God, and trusted in Him, they became intelligent. Although one of the smallest of the nations, they exercised a great influence throughout the world. The promise made to Israel that they should become the leading, dominant nation of the earth and give laws to all the other nations for their blessing was a contagious suggestion. The Babylonians took it up, and put it into effect by conquering the world. The Medes and Persians followed. Next came the Greeks, ambitious to be the ruling nation. Later came the Romans into power as masters of the world, conquering other nations and giving them laws which still very largely prevail, but which apparently were based upon the Mosaic code.

In considering the influence of the Law given at Mount Sinai, we are to remember that primarily and properly it affected very few. Those few were the faithful ones mentioned by St. Paul in Hebrews 11. But in a general way, all the Jewish people were influenced by the spirit of that Law Covenant, and were made more courageous, more liberty-loving, than formerly, and more so than were other peoples. Josephus felt called upon to defend his people from the charge of being so independent, so headstrong, as to be continuously rebellious.

The Roman emperors seem to have had the idea that the religion of the Jews should be stamped out because it was a liberty-producing religion, unfavorable to their designs. We remember St. Paul's declaration that the Gospel gathered out of the Jewish nation all "Israelites, indeed"—"the Elect"—and that the rest were blinded. The blinded ones drew from the ancient promises of God those conceptions of life which, unregulated by the Spirit of the Lord, devoured them with pride and ambition; and such a spirit of independence has made them lawless.

The effect of this, as history shows, was that civil strife destroyed their nationality much more than did the Roman armies, which merely came in at the close and terminated the reign of anarchy. The lesson we would point from this narrative is that the spirit of Divine Truth tends toward liberty more than all other influences combined, but that this liberty may be dangerous to those who receive not the Divine Law and Message into good and honest hearts as Israelites indeed.

Christian Love of Liberty. The teachings of Jesus and the Apostles went first to the Jew, by Divine direction, gathering from them a "peculiar people, zealous of good works," a class at once godly, reverential and liberty-loving. So independent were they that they willingly rejected the teachings of the Scribes and Pharisees, and braved persecution, ostracism, for what they believed to be the Truth.

Already they belonged to the most independent people of the world, the Jews; but the Message of Christ made them still more independent than their brethren. It made them free indeed by giving them a clearer knowledge of God and of His Divine arrangements. The Gospel Message gave them courage to become martyrs for Christ. Sinai's Law admitted the nation of Jews to be God's servant people, but the Message of Jesus, confirmed at Calvary and at Pentecost, gave a still higher hope and still more ennobling thought. It was the teaching of Jesus that through His death, a Ransom-price was provided, which eventually would permit the return of all mankind from the power of sin and death, to harmony with the Creator and to everlasting life.

More than this, the Message was an invitation to those who had eyes of understanding and ears of appreciation, that they might, in association with the Redeemer, become the agents of God in bestowing Restitution blessings upon mankind. But in order to be sharers with Christ in His glory, they must be sharers also in His sufferings and ignominy. As He was despised and rejected of men they must not expect to escape similar experiences. Their share in the Kingdom would depend upon their faithfulness and loyalty even unto death.

Is it any wonder that this Gospel Message served to stir their hearts, to open their lips and to make them courageous beyond all others of the whole world? The Message made them free! It explained that in becoming the disciples of Jesus they passed out from under slavery to sin, and became children of the Highest. It declared that, becoming children of God, they were associated with Jesus, they became heirs of God and joint-heirs with Jesus Christ, their Lord and Redeemer—if so be that they should suffer with Him.

They Went Everywhere Preaching. These, liberated from all fear of death, made free through their confidence in the Savior, manifested their courage. They knew that faithfulness must bring them persecution, yet they kept not silent. They were persecuted by the Jews, because they disturbed the order of things prescribed by the Chief Priests and Pharisees. They were imprisoned, whipped and persecuted, but they went everywhere preaching the Gospel.

Amongst the Gentiles they had similar experiences. Those who made silver shrines for Diana perceived that if the people believed the teachings of the Christians they would have no further use for their shrines. On commercial grounds they opposed the preaching of the Gospel and sought to destroy those who bore the Message. Stripes, imprisonments, tribulation on every hand were the results. Soon the Roman emperors realized the Christians to be a new force and feared the awakened influence on their peoples. Nero and Diocletian crucified them, burned them, caused them to be devoured by beasts, thus making public spectacles of them, and rendering the very name of Christ odious. Yet even this could not stamp out their spirit of liberty.

Alas! a change came, as the persecutions gradually relaxed, and millions espoused the name of Christ without having received the true Gospel Message to make them free. So for centuries there followed a period of darkness, ignorance, superstition. Yet God was not without His witnesses. A few retained the spirit of the Truth, and were esteemed fanatical, peculiar, and had trying experiences amongst their brethren. The cause of this general lapse into darkness was that the Word of God was no longer the Torch. Instead, the word of bishops became the standard, and later the decrees of councils.

By and by, in God's Providence, the Torch of liberty again was lighted. Huss in Germany and Tyndale in Great Britain, became leaders in a movement to bring forward the Word of God. The darkness bated the light and almost extinguished it. Those who lifted the Torch perished as martyrs, and Tyndale's Bibles were burned at St. Paul's Place, London.

For a time it seemed as if the Torch had been quenched, but later it blazed forth again. Luther and his associates held it up. The bishops had burned Tyndale's Bibles were themselves forced ultimately to produce a translation. Two Catholic versions of the Bible and our common English version, and Luther's version followed.

The Torch flared up, and the whole world began to be influenced by it. The British, the Germans, Scandinavians and Dutch, became potent influences of civilization and enlightenment throughout the world. Today these nations are still in the forefront, America with them, while the nations which neglected the Bible, have until now made little progress. Now all nations are being influenced by this wonderful Book, although they know it not. The doctrines which the Bible inculcates have given to the civilized world its high conception of human liberties, human rights, human equalities.

Danger Now, as to the Jews.

What we point out respecting the Jews and the influence of their Law upon them, we must now point out with respect to Christendom and the influence of God's Message today. To the saintly Jews, the liberty granted helped them to appreciate the privilege of laying down their lives in God's service. But to the remainder of the nation the liberty led on to greater discontent and strife.

So it is today. The saintly of Christendom, blessed by the great promises of God and inspired by the Truth respecting the redemption from sin and death, are most courageous. But these having become the servants of God, manifest their courage by their faithfulness and loyalty to the principles of righteousness, laying down their lives in the interest of God's Truth.

Here also we find, as with the Jews, that others having the same knowledge, but not being sanctified by the Truth, are made the more discontented. In other words, independence and liberty not under the restraints of sanctification to God and His service, are dangerous to the peace of the world. Thus we see that the most dangerous elements of society are those people who have had more or less contact with the Gospel and its liberty-inspiring Message. Not having received the Truth into consecrated hearts, they are disposed to use their liberty according to their own judgment merely, ignoring the Divine arrangement outlined in God's Word.

Thus we see around us today strife. Strife in business, and along social lines, and in a general massing of interests amongst the lower classes, a massing of wealth among the upper classes and a general preparation to destroy one another in a sanguinary struggle for supremacy. The Truth has begotten a spirit of liberty; but the Divine Word having been neglected, liberty is in danger of becoming license, leading to anarchy and the wreck of our present civilization.

Became Christ's Bond-Slave.

St. Paul gives the true conception of liberty. It is freedom to do right. If all could so use liberty, what a blessing it would be! St. Paul voiced the sentiments of God's truly consecrated people from his day until now. He explained that through accepting Christ he became dead to other masters and free from the authority of sin, Satan and death. But this release was granted to him on condition that he would fully give up his own will and accept, instead, the will of Christ. He accepted the proposition and declares that thus he became Christ's bond-slave.—1 Corinthians 7:22.

We perceive his thought. The will is the lever which governs and controls the mind. Having given up his will to Christ, St. Paul was thus more fully bound to Christ than any earthly slave has ever been bound.

All accepted by Christ give first their wills, and thus bind every act, word and thought into subservience to the will of God in Christ. This was St. Paul's experience, and must be the experience of all those who, like St. Paul, hope to be of the Royal Priesthood, who will be joint-heirs with Jesus.

To some it might seem a terrible captivity to be thus bound as respects even their thoughts; and it would be terrible to be bound to any except the one Master and Head. But to those who really appreciate the Truth, the Holy Spirit of God, to those it is a blessed bondage, in which they rejoice. More and more their minds become transformed and renewed. More and more they rejoice in the liberty where-with Christ makes them free from all other bondages, and more and more they rejoice to be servants of so gracious a King.

A PARSON'S REMEDY

By M. QUAD

Copyright, 1912, by Associated Literary Press.

The widow Goodhue had come east from Michigan and settled in a Connecticut village. She was a childless woman of forty-five, and the villagers liked her looks and gave her welcome. For five or six weeks all went well, and then the widow broke out.

A villager who had done some painting for the widow called for his money. She opened fire on him at once. After tongue lashing him for five minutes she picked up a club and drove him from the premises. She had a garden, and she had given a neighbor permission to cut the grass for his cow. He was cutting away when the woman descended upon him and gave him a cuff on the ear and rushed him out of the yard a much frightened man. The grocer happened to be passing, and he halted at the gate to see the fun. Mrs. Goodhue walked out to him and said:

"See here, you baboon faced son of a gun, you trot right on or I'll break your knees."

The grocer stood with mouth open and wondered if he had heard aright.

"Didn't I tell you to trot?" demanded the widow as she whirled him around and administered a kick that raised his heels six inches from the ground.

Across the street a carpenter was building a fence. As he hammered away a shadow fell across his feet. At the same time a stick fell upon his head.

"What's this?" he asked as he whirled around.

"Too much darned noise!" replied the woman.

"Why, lady, I have got to hammer in the nails."

"Then I've got to hammer you with this stick!"

And she satled in and drove him from his job, and, like the grass cutter and the grocer, he went away to spread the report that the Widow Goodhue had gone plumb crazy. The facts in the matter later reached the ears of Dr. Beazler, the oldest practitioner in the county and an acknowledged authority on mental diseases, and he made a call to see how bad the case was. He found the patient seated on the floor in the middle of the room, with her hair down and a broken chair beside her. At the first glance he decided that she was crazy.

"Well?" she asked after they had stared at each other for half a minute.

"You are not feeling very well?" he half queried.

"You are an infernal liar!" she promptly replied.

Dr. Beazler smiled like the bloom on a bull thistle and sat down. As he sat down the widow jumped up. He read his peril in her eyes and made a bolt for the door and got most of his body outside before her foot hit the rest of it. That settled it. The newcomer was as crazy as a March, April or May hare. She must be restrained. The law must be applied to. The village was agog over the news, but it had something more coming to it. Next day and before any steps had been taken the smiling and good natured widow was asking the neighbor why he didn't cut more grass for his cow. She was at the grocery ordering a big bill of eatables. She was bowing to Dr. Beazler across the street, and she repaid three or four social calls. Crazy? Why, the person that said so must be a born fool. She was just lovely, she was.

Five times in one year the widow had those queer spells. Then the good Deacon Watkins came from a distance of nine miles to court her and win her hand and carry her off to Medina. It was all done in six weeks' time, and none of the villagers posted the woe as to those strange spells. He had been a bridegroom for several weeks and was still feeling mussy when one of them came on and gave him the surprise of his life. He was cuffing and kicking down cellar and upstairs and out of the house, and for two days he ate raw turnips and slept in the barn. Then peace and love were restored and all went merrily. There were four outbreaks before the deacon began to think of divorce. Then he went to his pastor to talk things over.

"She doesn't get hold of liquor?" asked the parson.

"Not a drop; not even cider."

"Was there insanity in her family?"

"She says not."

"Deacon, you run the house, don't you?" asked the parson.

"Y-es, kinder—that is, I guess I do."

"Which means that your wife does?"

"Um"

The parson reflected for five minutes, and then for five more he was busy whispering into the deacon's right ear. Then the deacon smiled and nodded and went home. The next day the parson went on his vacation, and it was six weeks before they met again.

"Well?" asked the parson.

"She started in to have another."

"And you?"

"Gave her the gad—licked her good and stout."

"And she?"

"Cuddled right down; said that was what ailed her—she wanted a strong hand to boss her. She'll have no more spells."

"I'm glad to hear it."

"But, parson," asked the deacon with a puzzled look on his face, "did you know the remedy for cases?"

The parson didn't say. He looked at the deacon and almost winked—almost.

PANAMA-PACIFIC INTERNATIONAL EXPOSITION, SAN FRANCISCO, 1915.

Copyright, 1912, by Panama-Pacific International Exposition.

ONE of the minor courts that will open out from the great exposition city upon a vast tropical garden upon the south. This court, a marvel of tropical transplanting, is south of the Court of Four Seasons. It is designed by Mr. George W. Kelham. The Panama-Pacific International Exposition will stand alone not only in its architectural treatment but in its setting as Harbor View, the exposition site, in the adornment of its huge interior courts and of its grounds, with hundreds of thousands of palms, flowers and rare shrubs and vines, and in the superb color plan created by Jules Guichard, world famous colorist. The theme of the exposition, the sculpture, and mural paintings will exalt the spirit of achievement through which America has completed the Panama canal. The theme of the great interior courts will suggest the meeting of the East and West.

HINTS FOR THE BUSY HOUSEWIFE

Stove That Heats Fourteen Flatirons at Once.

A Kentucky man has designed a stove for laundry purposes that will heat fourteen flatirons at once. At the same time he has attached a boiler to it, so that water can be heated at the same time the irons are without any waste of heat. The firebox of this stove has heavy cast iron side linings, which take up the heat. Along both sides are shelves, each of which holds four eight-pound irons, points up, with their bottoms against the stove and in direct contact with the heated portion. These shelves account for eight of the fourteen irons which constitute the heating capacity of the stove, the other six being heated on top in the ordinary way. In front the stove has a drop door, fitted so that no air can get in when it is closed.

Haddock Fritters.

One smoked haddock, two eggs, one gill of milk, one tablespoonful of flour, salt and pepper to taste. Put the haddock into a baking tin with a little milk and place it in the oven for about twenty minutes. Take up and drain the fish, remove skin and bones and divide the meat into fine flakes. Put in a stewpan with the flour, add the milk and beat up over the fire and mix well. Add the yolks of the eggs, butter, salt and pepper and beat up again, then add the whites of the eggs and beat up the whole lightly. Fry a tablespoonful at a time in smoking hot fat. If in shallow fat in a frying pan, fold over when the edges have set. Fry to a golden brown and serve hot.

Apple Roly Poly.

One and one-half cupsful of flour, add a pinch of salt, one level teaspoonful of soda and two rounding teaspoonfuls of cream tartar. Sift and mix in thoroughly with hands one tablespoonful of cold lard. Mix with cold water and roll thin. Three large apples, chopped fine, spread on crust, sprinkle with three tablespoonfuls of sugar and a little cinnamon. Roll up like jelly roll. Put in a well buttered round pan (large size), spread on top one-half cupful of sugar, one tablespoonful of butter and a little cinnamon and pour on enough boiling water to well cover the crust. Bake until a rich brown. Serve hot.

Cream of Onion Soup.

Slice sufficient white onions to measure one cupful and a half. Heat two tablespoonfuls of butter in a large pan, add the onions and cook slowly, shaking now and then, until the onions are very tender, but hardly beginning to color. Sprinkle over them two tablespoonfuls of flour and stir until absorbed. Add gradually one quart of hot milk, stirring that it may thicken evenly. When at the boiling point draw to one side, season and simmer for ten minutes, then rub through a sieve, pressing as much pulp through as possible. Return to the fire until piping hot and serve at once.

Indian Meal Pudding.

Scald one quart of milk. Beat one scant cupful of cornmeal with one cupful of molasses and one teaspoonful of salt and stir into milk. Cook until thick. Take from the stove and add one-half pint of cold milk, a piece of butter the size of an egg, one-half teaspoonful each of allspice and cassia and two well beaten eggs. Pour into buttered dish. Bake four hours. After baking one hour pour over it one pint of cold milk. Serve with sweetened whipped cream flavored with vanilla.

UNFAIR TO THE DRUGGIST

The Old Joke About "Something Just as Good," Doesn't Apply to This Drug Store

You have probably heard of dozens of times the old story that a drug store was a place to "get something just as good." There is at least one druggist in the world that you can't say this about.

It is certain that an inferior article will never be substituted for a guaranteed one by W. H. Windrow's drug store. Take for instance a safe, reliable remedy for constipation and liver trouble like Dodson's Liver Tone. This harmless vegetable liquid has proved so satisfactory a liver stimulant and reliever of biliousness, and to entirely take the place of calomel without any danger or restriction of habits or diet, that there are dozens of preparations springing up with imitations of its claims.

But Dodson's Liver Tone is guaranteed to do all that is claimed for it, and if you are not satisfied with it W. H. Windrow will hand your money back with a smile. Any person going to this store for a bottle of Dodson's Liver Tone will be sure of getting a large bottle of this genuine remedy in exchange for his half dollar.
